SDG Progress Report 2023

Conferences Aligned to SDGs

We purposefully and actively participate in conferences and events aligned to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) throughout the year to have an open and robust dialogue addressing SDGs with our communities and stakeholders.

Our researchers and academics present their research efforts and projects at conferences locally, nationally and internationally.

In this section, you can explore the conference activities of our academics, researchers and staff, in particular, those that are aligned to the SDGs.
