

Tashkent
State
University of Law

What do we do?

Educational Outreach Activities

The official channel "Academy of Oratory Arts" of Tashkent State University of Law

The "Academy of Oratory Arts" at the Tashkent State University of Law is likely a specialized program within the university that focuses on developing students' oratory skills, rhetoric, and public speaking. These programs often emphasize the importance of communication in the legal profession, helping students refine their ability to argue persuasively, present legal cases clearly, and engage effectively in public discourse.

click here

TASHKENT STATE UNIVERSITY of LAW
ORATORY ACADEMY

What is it?

click here

"TSUL Court" likely refers to a moot court or a simulated court at Tashkent State University of Law (TSUL). Moot courts are a common part of legal education, allowing students to practice legal arguments in a mock court setting. These simulations provide hands-on experience in litigation, advocacy, and courtroom procedures, helping students develop their legal reasoning and public speaking skills.

About us

A "Students Association" at Tashkent State University of Law (TSUL) would typically be a student-run organization representing the interests, rights, and well-being of the university's students. Such associations usually organize academic, cultural, and social events, provide support for students, and may advocate on their behalf in discussions with university administration. They also help foster a sense of community and offer networking opportunities for students.

click here

Youth Union

The Primary Organization of the Youth Union of Uzbekistan at Tashkent State University of Law (TSUL) serves as a dynamic platform for student engagement and development. As part of the national Youth Union of Uzbekistan, this organization fosters leadership, academic excellence, and social responsibility among students. It organizes educational seminars, cultural events, and community service activities, providing opportunities for students to enhance their skills, network, and contribute to society. Through its initiatives, the organization aims to empower youth, promote volunteerism, and advocate for the interests of students both within the university and at a national level.

click here

Club

The "Young Prosecutors" Club at Tashkent State University of Law is a student organization dedicated to fostering interest and expertise in the field of prosecution. It provides a platform for aspiring prosecutors to gain specialized knowledge, participate in legal training, and engage in moot court activities. The club regularly hosts seminars, workshops, and discussions led by experienced legal professionals, helping students develop practical skills and deepen their understanding of prosecution procedures. Through these initiatives, the club aims to prepare students for future careers in the legal and justice systems of Uzbekistan.

click here

The "Qomus" Club at Tashkent State University of Law is an intellectual and educational club aimed at fostering academic growth and legal scholarship among students. The club is focuses on broadening students' legal understanding and promoting interdisciplinary learning. It could host lectures, discussions, and debates on various legal, social, and academic topics, encouraging members to explore a wide range of issues related to law, philosophy, and society. The club's goal is to cultivate well-rounded, informed legal professionals with a deep appreciation for knowledge and learning.

click here

Promotion train: more than 200 educational institutions, industries, organizations, military units, and communities covered

click here

"Propaganda Train" helps strengthen the constitutional knowledge of the population, especially young people

TOSHKENT DAVLAT YURIDIK UNIVERSITETI

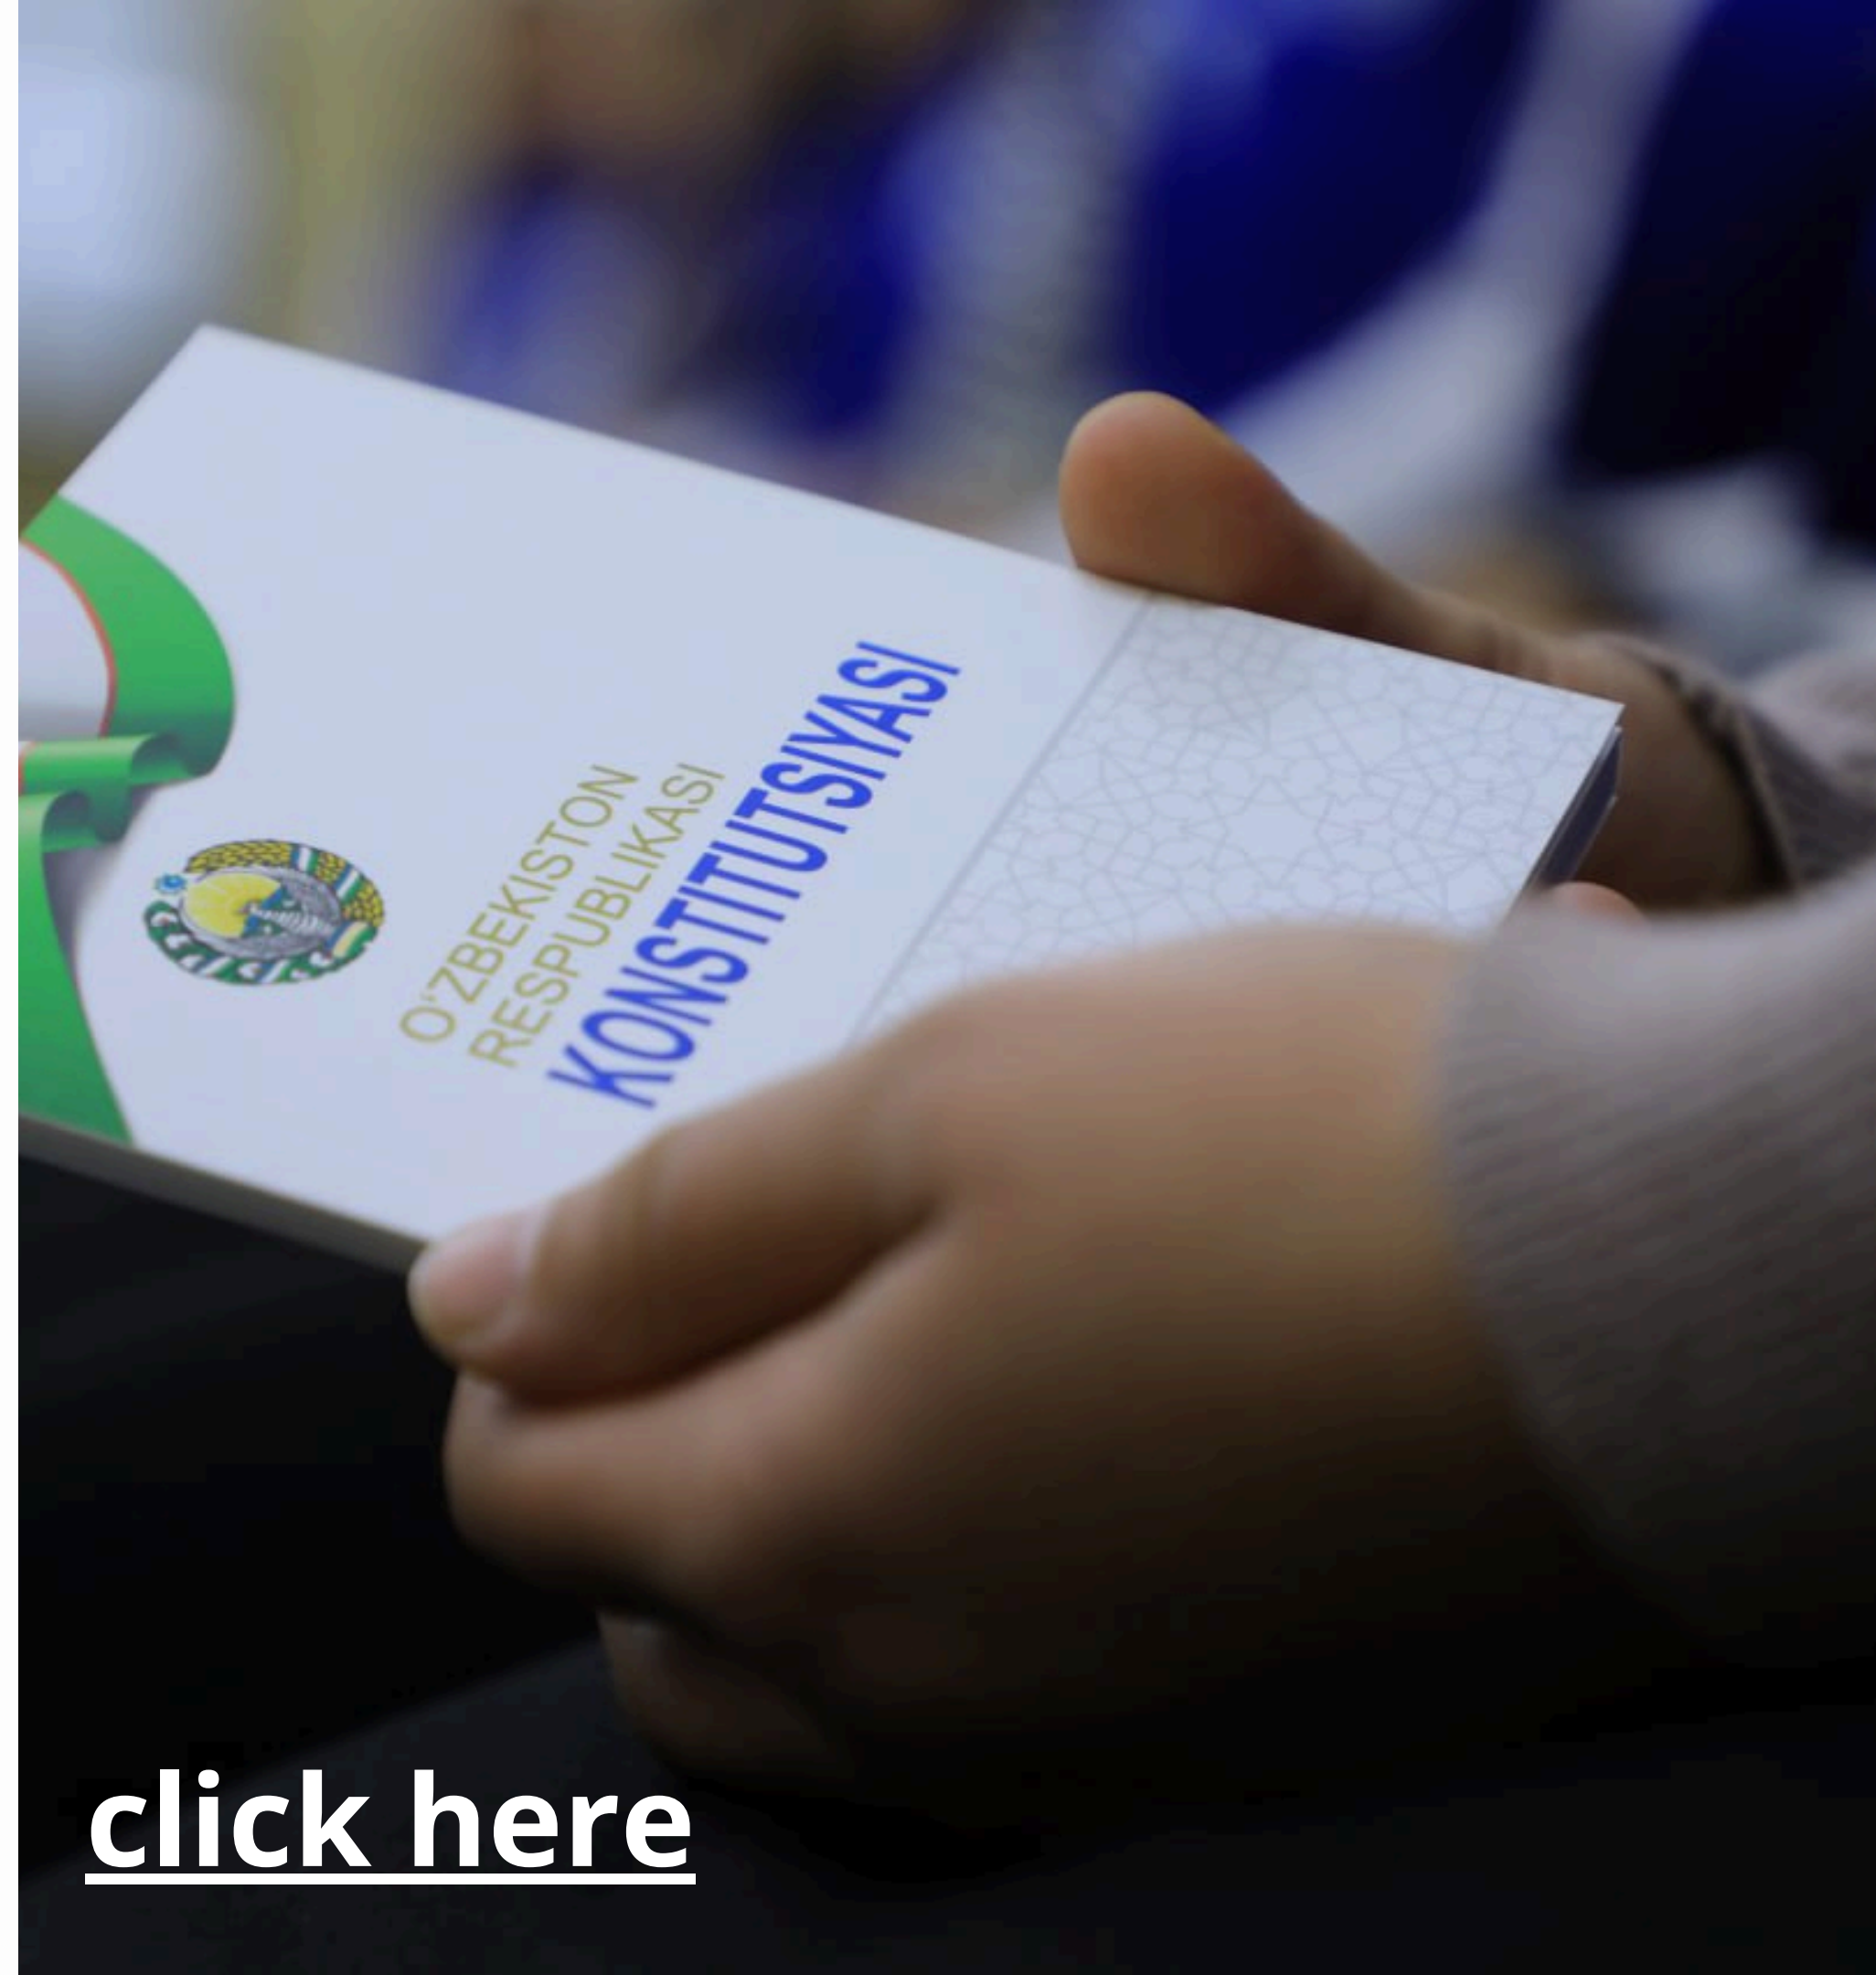

@tsulofficial

#YANGILIK

"Targ'ibot poyezdi" aholi, ayniqsa, yoshlarning konstitutsiyaviy bilimlarini mustahkamlashga ko'maklashmoqda

Loyihaning ilk kunida targ'ibotchilar ta'lim muassasalari va turli tashkilotlarda aholi, ayniqsa, yoshlarning huquqiy, xususan, konstitutsiyaviy savodxonligini oshirishga qaratilgan tadbirlarni boshlab yuborishdi.

f i a

click here

TSUL organized a summer camp under the motto
"Young lawyers - builders of New Uzbekistan"

As part of the project, organized to support and encourage talented students, specialist trainers conducted psychological training, various classes, intellectual games, and contests aimed at developing leadership skills, improving public speaking skills, and teamwork.

Besides, for the participants of the camp, there was organized a trip to the mountains and various sports competitions.

click here

A summer camp was organized for initiative students of TSUL

click here

TSUL_ART is a student theater studio that emphasizes the educational value of theater. Inspired by the words of Mahmudxo'ja Behbudiy, "Theater is a place of instruction," the studio engages in theatrical performances that aim to inspire and educate its audience. They use their Telegram channel to share updates, performances, and insights into their work. You can explore more about their activities by joining their channel

click here

click here

The Model United Nations (MUN) club of TSUL (Tashkent State University of Law) provides students with an engaging platform to simulate United Nations proceedings. Participants take on the roles of diplomats, debating global issues, drafting resolutions, and improving skills in diplomacy, public speaking, and negotiation. The club offers an excellent opportunity for students to develop a deep understanding of international relations and to enhance their leadership and critical thinking abilities. By participating in MUN, TSUL students can gain valuable experience in problem-solving and global governance.

At the Tashkent State University of Law, on October 27-28, a UN model was held, in which students from more than 5 Universities of our capital took part.

From over 1,200 applications, 150 delegates were selected to demonstrate their best skills within our model. The members of the presidium were representatives of the capital's universities, experienced in this field, who showed incredible professionalism and mentorship.

click here

For more detailed information

click here